

You Are Not Alone

Words and Music by Nicole Kenley-Miller
Harmonization by Daniel Sigmon

♩=80

REFRAIN*

You are not a - lone. Do not fear the still - est air. Do not fear the si - lent drone. Your heart still beats. Your voice still sings. And you are not a - 10

6

VERSES - Solo

F

B \flat

lone. 1.I hav - en't felt the touch of hu - man skin for oh so long. The 2.I hoped that I would see a day when white did not mean right, But 3.I feel like they will ne - ver lis - ten. How can I be heard? They 4.Why should it be so hard to un - der - stand I have no choice? That 5.The world is chang - ing fast - er than my mind can com - pre - hend. I

*Refrain may be sung in unison or 4-part harmony

13

gm7

B \flat

C

2

days creep on as I sit fro - zen, ev' - ry - day in - jus - tice bows in suck up all the air so I can't who I love is who I love. Why nev - er feared a break, back when these wait - ing to be - long. The cen - ter stage spot - light. I e - ven say a word. Oh can't you just re - joice? Why branch - es still could bend. The 15

B \flat

F

B \flat

F

cold-ness of the cy - ber - glow is raise my voice a - gain to shout, "No sure, they say, "We want to hear your must I fear I'll lose my job, or years have made me wise, but all the all that I can feel, as I jus - tice, - no peace, but u - nique point of view," but in this e - ven worse, be killed? We can rest of me feels slow, And 17

gm7

B \flat

F

C

surf to the next page in hopes of damn, could there be just one day when man's world, noth - ing I say has a all drink from this cup of life, and no - one seems to no - tice that I find - ing some - thing real.

I don't fear po - lice.
hope of get - ting through.
yours will still get filled.
gave up long a - go.

after last verse,
repeat refrain
final time